AUSBIOTECH 2010 NATIONAL CONFERENCE SPEAKERS' PROFILE

Ian Fitzpatrick
Manager Manufacturing Innovation
Invetech Pty Ltd (Australia)

Ian Fitzpatrick is a manager with Invetech's Manufacturing Innovation Group, based in Melbourne Australia. Ian's roles include hands on engineering, technical supervision and business development.

Currently based in Australia, Ian develops projects with companies across North America and Europe coordinating with project teams based in USA and Australia.

Ian applies tools drawn from his broad consultative experience to develop strategies for scale up of complex products to create investment plans focussed on delivery of quality.

Application of this experience to cell therapies is creating integrated closed consumable process systems for autologous and allogeneic cellular therapies.
