AUSBIOTECH 2010 NATIONAL CONFERENCE SPEAKERS' PROFILE

Dr Dianne Jackson-Matthews
Director
ERA Consulting (Australia) Pty Ltd

Dr Dianne Jackson-Matthews is Director of the ERA Australian office, and was previously Director of the ERA Washington DC office from 2001 to 2004.

Dianne has worked closely with companies in the Asia-Pacific region, to ensure their biological products have been developed in line with European and US regulatory requirements. Prior to joining ERA, Dianne spent 20 years in the US, holding senior positions in the pharmaceutical industry, and most recently was Director of Regulatory Affairs at Unigene Laboratories, Inc., New Jersey, USA, where she also gained extensive global development experience in GMP production and testing of biotech products. Dianne's expertise covers technical and regulatory aspects for strategic development of biologics, including cell and gene therapies, as well as drug products. She is currently an Adjunct Associate Professor at the University of Queensland.
